

In line with the requirement of Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act (2015), we are currently reviewing a formal statement that addresses the transparency requirements of the Act.

Interim Statement

CJ Upton & Sons are solely UK based and operate within all UK & European laws. We consider ourselves an ethical organisation that strictly abides to all legislation. We responsibly purchase, using a limited number of suppliers and have never knowingly purchased steel from any source where slavery or human trafficking exists. We expect our suppliers to source materials from socially responsible suppliers and sustainable resources.
